MOTION BY SUPERVISOR ZEV YAROSLAVSKY

March 8, 2007

The services of registered nurses are essential in providing quality care to the citizens of Los Angeles County. Each year, the Department of Health Services holds a recognition week to honor the nurses who serve the public health care system across various County departments including Public Health, Mental Health, Fire, and Sheriff.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors:

1. Proclaim May 6-12, 2007 as "Nurse Recognition Week in Los Angeles County;"
2. Honor the outstanding nurse representatives with a commendation before this Board on Tuesday, May 8, 2007; and
3. Instruct all County Departments to assist the Department of Health Services with the staging of events as necessary.

PROCLAMATION
NURSE RECOGNITION WEEK
2007

Whereas, services of registered nurses are invaluable in providing quality patient care; and

Whereas, nurses have been employed in County health care since the late 1880's;

Whereas, nurses continually demonstrate their professionalism by striving to upgrade standards of nursing care and improve services; and

Whereas, the County of Los Angeles recognizes Nursing as a profession rich in knowledge, skill and human understanding.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors proclaim the week of May 6-12, 2007 as "Nurse Recognition Week" throughout the County of Los Angeles, and all residents are urged to reflect with pride and gratitude on the dedicated public service and lifesaving contributions rendered daily by these outstanding health care professionals in our community.
